Family Information Services (FIS)

The 22 Family Information Services (FIS)* offices across Wales provide up-to-date information on childcare, children and young people's services. They are the starting point for finding out what kind of childcare will best suit your family.

You can either phone, visit or email your Local FIS to talk to people who can explain what childcare and children's services are available in your area.

You will find a list of Family Information Services (FIS) at the back of this guide, complete with addresses, phone numbers and websites. Every Local Authority in Wales has set up a FIS, so there will be one in your area.

As well as helping you directly, your local FIS can also signpost you to other agencies and organisations. These may be able to offer further help and support to parents, carers and other professionals.
